Nashville, TN 37204-3951

The Backlog is published yearly by David Lipscomb University, 3901 Granny White Pike, Nashville, Tennessee, 37402-3951. David Lipscomb University is a private Christian university open to any qualified student without regard to race, religion, sex, color, national or ethnic origin, or physical handicap. In a manner consistent with all applicable laws and regulations, it does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, sex, color, national or ethnic origin, or physical handicap in the administration of its educational policies, programs, and activities, including its admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, employment practices, and athletic and other school administered programs except where necessitated by specific religious tenets held by the institution.

The Future's so Bright . . .

"Though we speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, we have become as sounding brass or a clanging cymbal . . ."

Our voices carried far and wide this year as David Lipscomb College became David Lipscomb University. We spoke on radio, television, and in the paper.

" . . . And though we have the gift of prophesy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though we have all faith, so that we could move mountains, but have not love, we are nothing . . ."

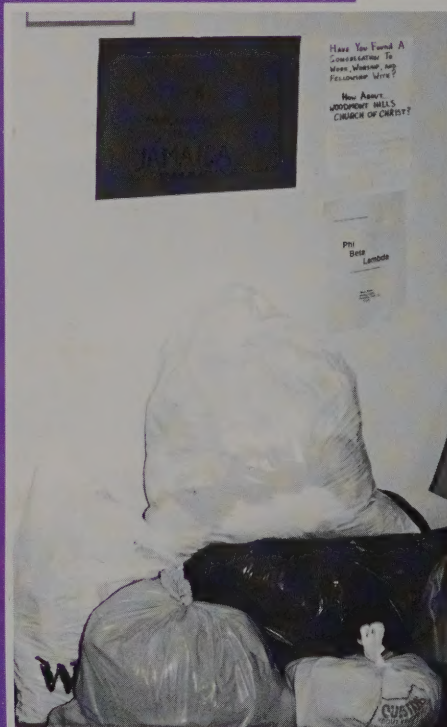

We studied the Bible, we grew in faith. Our leaders and teachers had a depth of knowledge beyond our comprehension — they understood mysteries which we could not fathom.

" . . . And though we bestow all our goods to the poor, and though we give our bodies to be burned, but have not love, it profits us nothing . . ."

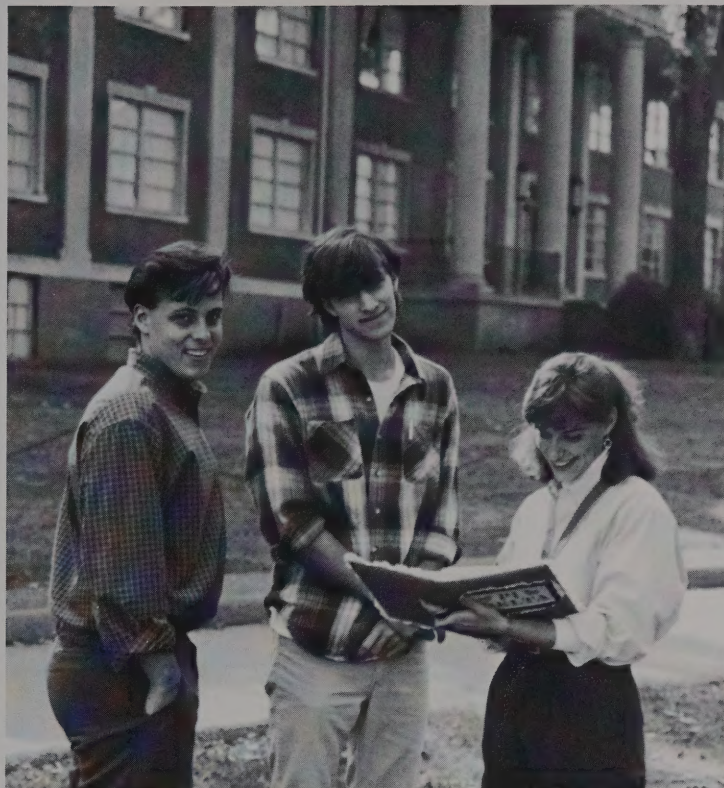

We gave to people hit by Hurricane Gilbert, to the little burned Gillaspie boy, to the inner city, and to many others as the need arose.

Victor Hunter enjoys the quietness of a late, cool October afternoon.

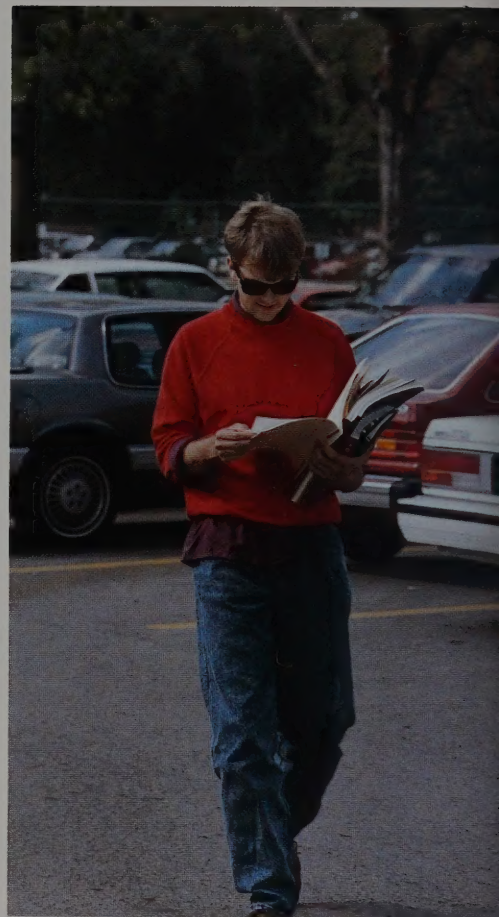

But these are not the things which set Lipscomb apart. Every school makes changes worthy of media attention, has knowledgeable teachers, and does charitable deeds.

"Love suffers long and is kind; Love does not envy; Love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; Does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, Is not provoked, thinks no evil; Does not rejoice in iniquity, But rejoices in truth; Love bears all things, Believes all things, Hopes all things, Endures all things."

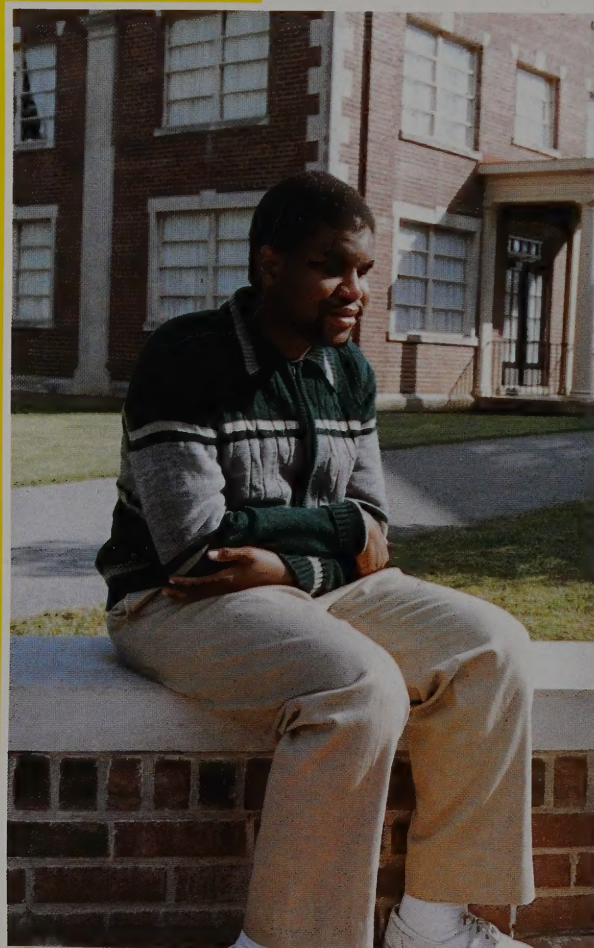

In class, in chapel, in the dorms, and in Bison Square these were our ideals. We suffered together and rejoiced together. We looked for good in friends and truth in life. We believed, hoped, and endured. There were times we failed, but we forgave. And we always remembered that, "now abide faith, hope, love — these three; but the greatest of these is love — I Corinthians 13

We Celebrated All Day ...

Everybody probably had a little bit of doubt, but even the worst skeptic was surely impressed with the way University Day turned out. From "Talk of the Town" to the final devotional, the entire celebration was simply incredible.

Channel Five's Joe Case and the crew from "Talk of the Town" started the festivities with the unveiling of the University sign along Belmont. Cameras and students then moved to the stage and Somewhere Between played two songs to get everyone fired up for more music. There was then a break for lunch and classes. At about 2:30, Mayor Bill Boner, appropriately clad in University T-shirt, belted out a couple on his harmonica, and proceeded to congratulate Lipscomb on its new status. Boner and President Hazelip then cut the purple and gold ribbons signifying the fact to all that we are now a University.

Shortly after, the band Cruise Control started to make music again, as the students did their best to make sure that Domino's, Purity, Donut Den, Pepsi, and yes even Marriot left with empty trucks. The clouds and tempo continued to pick up as Picture This took the stage. Unfortunately, due to bad weather conditions, WKDF's hot air balloon was not able to air, pardon the pun. But it neither stopped the activities nor the emotions, so the night continued.

... And All Night!

Carrie Folks then proceeded to show that talent as well as looks are needed to be Miss Tennessee. After the cues and equipment were finally organized, she gave us a few original songs, and the party roared on. Somewhere Between returned to the stage and finished up the music for awhile.

President Hazelip took the stage and gave the audience a brief history of Lipscomb from our founding in 1891 to our present university status. He then warned us to watch out for the Spring Thaw because, we "ain't seen nothin' yet." Next an assistant to Bob Clement congratulated our success as a whole and presented individual certificates-of-achievements to John Roberson, Mell Fletcher, and the ASA.

It was the feature band's turn to take the stage, and they were accepted by a primed and eager student body. You might have heard of this band, Restless Heart (sorry, couldn't resist). Seriously though, the band was very crowd-oriented, and the entire audience felt it as they joined in with the show. The band was also affected by the crowd as they poured out the music and gave a great encore.

The celebration ended with a great fireworks display, but still the night refused to end as we all came together for our devotional. We were able to give a little of the music back to our guests, as Miss Tennessee sat back and commented on how beautifully we sang. Then we sat back and thought of what a good University Day we had.

If you have a TV and an old hanger antenna, you might, just MIGHT, be able to pick up "DLU Digest," a television show produced by Lipscomb students. Under the guidance of Dr. Bill Proctor, a handful of students compose this half-hour news cast. Through each week, reporters Flemming Bell and Sonya Zorn film stories or ask students questions for each week's show.

On Monday evening, the group gathers at 5:30 to discuss the week's news and plan the show. The team then breaks to write the scripts, set up the equipment, and prepare their appearances. When everything has been finished, filming begins on the introductions to the stories and the news for the week. The show is usually co-hosted by Mark Fry and either Brandi Blaylock or Michelle DeClue. The show also has weather with Greg Corely, a sports segment with Sports Information Director Andy Lane, and a movie review with Melanie Sutton. The technical crew includes Randy Ham, Rich Kindall, and Glynna Malaer.

Tuesday night the show is edited by producer Mike Menninger and the final product is broadcast on channels 10 and 61 Wednesday at 9:00 pm.

Miss Bison

The Miss Bison Contest is quickly becoming an exciting tradition for Lipscomb's homecoming. This year, six participants competed for the honor of being the second Miss Bison: Jo Linda Bates (Joe Bohannon), Ophelia Bunz (Dale Lawrence), Buffy Lo (Maury Mitchell), Monica Monroe (Donald Harz), Celeste Pendlebrook (Brad Walden), and Beata Tusculum (Lance Perry).

Brett Holladay hosted the contest as students sat outside Elam to watch the action. Each contestant was introduced and took her place on the stage. They did, however, have to show their intelligence in order to win. Each was asked an interview question and required to answer on the spot.

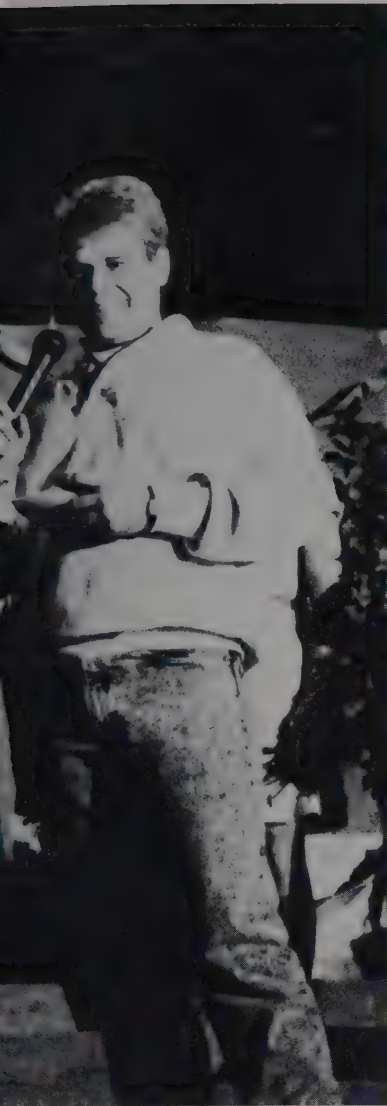

While the Bison cheerleaders were selecting the winners, Adama Burnadette (Adam Burnette) came to make her final appearance as the reigning Miss Bison. When the results were announced, everyone knew that the interview question had made the difference. When asked what she wished for most, Celeste Pendlebrook replied, "... a date with Chris Cashwell, because he looks just like George Michael!" — Shana Pounders

The Barretts of ## Wimpole Street

An old cliché says that history repeats itself. That was the case with the 1988 Homecoming drama, The Barretts of Wimpole Street. In 1948, the senior class chose this play for their first production at David Lipscomb College. Henry Arnold and his future wife, Bernie Wycoff, portrayed the two leading roles as Robert Browning and Elizabeth Barrett. In 1988, The Barretts of Wimpole Street was performed at David Lipscomb University with Mark Paulk and Vali Forrister in the romantic leads.

The play concerns the despotic father, Edward Barrett, and his iron-gripped control over his children. It is the story of how the eldest child, Elizabeth, escapes his domineering grasp, falls in love, and eventually marries her admirer and fellow poet, Robert Browning. — Joel Meriwether

Homecoming

The weekend of November 12 was a very special time for Lipscomb students, faculty, and alumni, as Lipscomb hosted its annual Homecoming. Included in the festivities were the Bison Bash, class reunions, and basketball games. The activities began on Thursday, November 10, with the Class of 1948 Reunion Dinner. That evening the Bison Bash took place outside of Elam Hall. Amid doughnuts, bonfires, and hot chocolate, the cheerleaders boisterously rallied the students for the DLU/Tusculum game that night. The highlight of Bison Bash was the crowning of Miss Bison, Celeste Pendlebrook, alias Brad Walden. The crowd then moved to McQuiddy Gym to cheer the Bisons to a 130-80 victory.

Saturday's Homecoming activities officially began with a breakfast for Representatives of the Decades. Several coffee parties were held for class reunions. Classes as far back as 1948 and as recent as 1983 gathered, along with the Golden Circle, the alumni who graduated fifty years or more prior to 1988. Various social clubs also hosted teas for graduated club members. Chapel was held at 10 a.m. Afterwards

When the music ceased, President Hazelip began the Awards Ceremony by recognizing Lee Camp as Bachelor of Ugliness and Kathryn Dean as Miss Lipscomb of 1988. Five new Hall of Fame inductees were recognized and presented plaques for their service. R. Lyn Baker, George R. McIntosh, Robert Neil, Chuck Ross, and Homer Carlton Stinson, Jr. were the five inductees.

The awards ceremony culminated with the crowning of Jennifer Miller as Lipscomb's 1988 Homecoming Queen. The band played while the attendants and their escorts filed into the gym. Mary Helen Little and Brent Fry represented the Freshman class, while Kathryn Camp and Scott Broadway represented the Sophomores. ## Bison Painting:

Art or Abuse?

Everyone has seen the many looks of the Bison this year. It has worn everything from zebra stripes to Bush/Quayle stickers. Some students label the spray-painting of the Bison as art. According to Junior Jason Shelton, it is a way of expressing inner feelings. Todd Roland considers it a harmless way to "blow off steam" and would rather see the Bison painted, than a building or a car. This certainly becomes true when the "art" is an expression of a rival school.

Yet other students take a more serious opinion. Sophomore Todd Burleson feels "the person(s) responsible for this must not have any respect for our school." Many students are outraged at this violent act against our mascot. Sally Hughes asks, "What ever happened to school pride?"

Some who think the painting is vandalism also provide solutions. Eric Owens states that "... anywhere else, the violators would be fined or imprisoned." Phil Fite feels "if the Bison isn't taken care of ... then it should be taken down and put in storage until we get some students who respect school property." These answers may need to be considered if the spray-painting is actually a form of vandalism.

But, will these solutions work if it is not an act of vandalism? Can the students' creativity be stifled this easily? Or will other outlets emerge? According to some opinions, the painting is vandalism and should be punished. But to others, it represents a creative art form. Who is right? Only you can decide. — Laura Smith

Tuesday Night

DEVOS

The students' future spirituality is a major concern of the ASA's Spiritual Life Committee. One way the committee encourages spiritual growth is by having Tuesday night devotionals.

The devotionals, held in Bison Square, are conducted by young men, usually students, appointed by the committee. At 10 pm, students, faculty, and guests gather in a circle to share scripture, pray, and listen to spiritual talks. The most important activity, however, is making "a joyful noise unto the Lord."

Gwen Griffin likes devos because "they make you feel like you belong to one big family." Beth Sexton says, "the devos are very uplifting; singing with my friends makes it all worthwhile."

This year's devos have been particularly successful. Attendance rarely falls below 250 and most devos last longer than the thirty minutes allotted. They end with a prayer, then everyone joins in a group hug and voices blend in singing "A Common Love."

Tuesday night devotionals provide one of the few opportunities the student body has to grow closer spiritually. This spiritual unity encourages growth as Christians build stronger churches which last long into the future. — Tiffany Polk & Nancy Davidson

America's Return to Space

On Thursday, September 29, 1988, America returned to space with the launch of the shuttle Discovery. This was our country's first manned launch since the Challenger was lost 73 seconds into mission 51-L on January 28, 1986.

Although NASA stated that the primary objective of STS-26 was to deliver the second Tracking and Data Relay Satellite (TDRS-C) to orbit, the mission was also a test of the shuttle itself and NASA's ability to launch, fly, and land the shuttle and its crew intact. Discovery also carried 11 secondary payloads into orbit, including two experiments conceived by students.

This was the seventh flight for Discovery, but with more than 100 modifications made to the orbiter, it was described as being almost like testing a new vehicle. Among the major modifications to the orbiter were brake improvements, increased thermal protection at critical areas, and a Crew Escape System consisting of a pyrotechnically jettisoned hatch, parachutes and survival gear, and a curved, telescoping pole to aid the crew in clearing the wing of the orbiter. This system was added to give the crew the ability to bail out in the event of a problem preventing a runway landing.

The five crew members were all veterans of space flight. The mission commander, USN Captain Rick Hauck, piloted Challenger and operated the remote manipulator arm on STS-7. He later commanded Discovery on mission STS 51-A. USAF Colonel Dick Covey, pilot, also piloted Discovery on mission 51-I, in 1985. Mike Lounge, a graduate of the Naval Academy, served as mission specialist 1. Lounge was also aboard STS 51-I as a mission specialist, where he deployed the Australian Aussat satellite and operated the remote manipulator arm. David Hilmers, colonel, USMC, was mission specialist 2. He was a mission specialist aboard Atlantis' maiden flight (STS 51-J), in October of 1985. Mission specialist 3 was George "Pinky" Nelson. Nelson served as a mission specialist on both Challenger (STS 41-C, April 1984) and Columbia (STS 61-C, January 1986). He also logged 9 hours of extravehicular activity (EVA) during the repair of a satellite on mission 41-C.

The four-day mission was completed when Discovery touched down at Edwards Air Force Base, California. Among the crowds that welcomed the crew home was Vice President George Bush. Within a few weeks of the completion of the flight, Atlantis was launched on STS-27. President Reagan announced that the shuttle being built to replace Challenger would be named by school children. America's future in space looks bright once again. — Bob Lawler

Madrigal Dinner

A Renaissance Christmas

One of the most unique groups on campus is the Early Music Consort. This group studies the musical instruments and compositions of the Middle Ages and the Renaissance. Each December, the Early Music Consort (EMC) hosts the Madrigal Dinner, a banquet designed to create a Renaissance atmosphere.

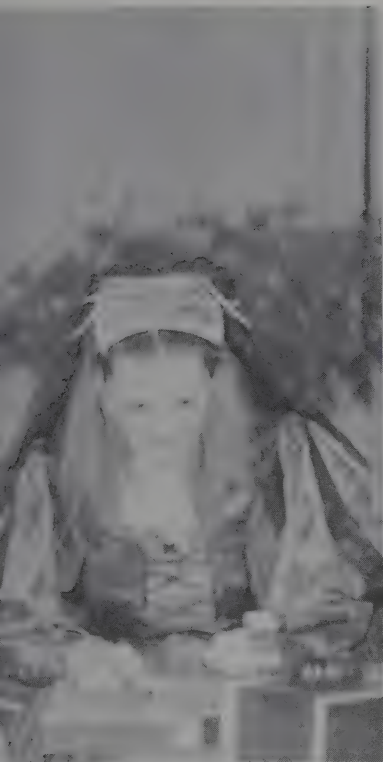

This year's theme was "A Renaissance Christmas." The host of the dinner was Sir Richard Brackett, who welcomed the guests to "his castle." The EMC singers and performers put on a show composed of early music varying from solos to trombone trios to group numbers. One selection was composed by Henry VIII of England.

The main course at dinner was wild boar. Walking minstrels playing hurdy gurdies, crumhorns, sackbuts, and other early instruments entertained throughout dinner. Oth-

Halloween Party

On the night of October 31st, the bell tower was transformed into a dwelling of the dead. The Halloween party, sponsored by the ASA, gave Lipscomb students a chance to show their creativity through costumes. During chapel, two freshmen dressed in bear costumes put everyone in the holiday spirit. Everything from ghouls to crayons were represented that night at the party. Two bonfires, hot chocolate, and roasted doughnuts and marshmallows kept the crowd warm. Wiley Lowe enhanced the evening with narrated ghost stories. — Crystal Reppart

Freshman Personalities

A Winter Wonderland

The Alumni Auditorium was full of fun and Christmas spirit December 2 and 3 as the freshman class performed "A Winter Wonderland." The show traced Christmas through the years.

The show kicked off with "Jingle Bells Calypso." This lead into "Winter Wonderland," the theme song, sung by Tasha Buri and David Martin.

The tribute to the 40's was lead by an ensemble cast in "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer." This was followed by Jennifer Wright's moving solo, "Merry Christmas, Darling." Steve Butler responded with "I'll Be Home For Christmas."

The 1950's in America were presented by Lee Murray as Elvis, singing "Jingle Bell Rock." The quartet of Steve Butler, Joe Gilbert, Nathan McRady, and Korey Risley charmed the audience and the stage girls in "Blue Christmas." Then Autumn Chester saw "Mommy Kissing Santa Claus."

The 60's saw "hippy" McGregor Glasgow and narrator Cary Church in "Alfie the Christmas Tree." The Freshman orchestra played "Deck the Halls" as a color guard performed. Candlelight beacons moved down the aisles singing "I'd Like to Teach the World to Sing" as the 60's came to an end.

1970 showed the freshmen as care-free children wanting toys and presents from Santa. Next, "Frosty the Snowman" (Bryant Kelley) and friends played a game as a Lipscomb security officer put a stop to it.

The 1980's saw another quartet (Ken Carden, Erin Grogan, David Martin, and Deano Smith) sang "Santa Claus is Coming to Town." The highlight of the show came when Santa (McGregor Glasgow) and beat — maker Jeff Muse led the elves in the "Elf Rap."

On the final night, two awards were given to reward a male female cast member for outstanding work in the production. Mark Holeman and Tasha Buri received these honors. The finale, "Winter Wonderland" was sung by the entire cast. — excerpts from The Babler

Former Secretaries of ## State visit Lipscomb

December 9, 1988, Lipscomb students witnessed history in the making. Alumni Auditorium hosted the historical meeting of former U.S. Secretaries of State, William Rogers, Henry Kissinger, Cyrus Vance, and Edmund Muskie. More than 100 media representatives covered the news conference which was viewed by an audience of about 1,300 students, faculty, and community members.

The secretaries fielded questions from various media representatives concerning foreign policy and U.S.-Soviet relations. They commented on Gorbachev's policies of perestroika (restructuring) and glasnost (openness), the Armenian earthquake, and Iranian terrorism. The former secretaries also gave their views on the responsibilities that President Bush will have to deal with in his coming term. The 20-minute conference centered on international events which are of vital importance to a bright future at Lipscomb and around the world. — Laura Smith

Eating Upstairs

Food by Marriott

When asked about the quality of school food, Lipscomb students need only say, "We are served by Marriott." Sounds impressive, doesn't it?

Early risers at Lipscomb can brag about the terrific breakfast choices of waffles, doughnuts, fruit, eggs, bacon, sausage, biscuits, and gravy. Even those students who prefer to come in after 8:15 a.m. receive a delicious continental breakfast.

Students push and shove to get a taste of Marriott's famous lunchtime specials. The attraction of American style lasagna, turkey tetrazzini, and quiche cause students to flock en masse upstairs.

Despite the varied dinner choices Nashville offers, most students choose to eat upstairs. Wednesday nights are special sources of attraction for students; one receives a priceless meal ticket which gives him options like shrimp, chicken nuggets, roast beef, and the ever-favorite steak.

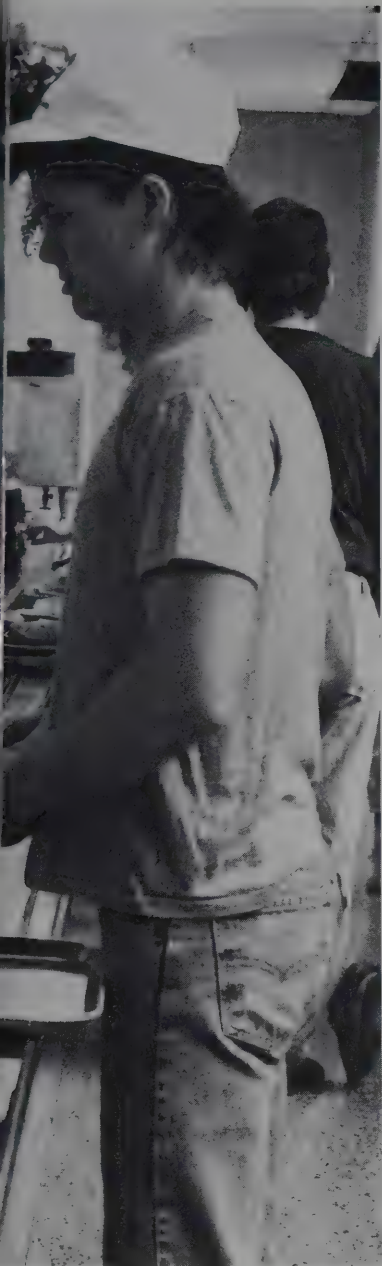

Aside from all the sarcasm, Steve Wilcox and his crew do a great job of taking on the task of feeding 2,000 people. Lipscomb students rarely appreciate the hard work and good attitude of Steve and the rest of the Marriott staff. Thanks guys!! — Shana Pounders

Ordering Out

"Delivered fresh, hot and fast" is a motto which most students are familiar with. When faced with no other alternative than eating upstairs or cooking it yourself, the concept of delicious food only a walk to the lobby away seems hard to pass up.

And why not, considering the variety provided by the local pizza merchants. A pizza can be round, square, thick, thin, with everything on it, plain, or with any topping combination the student desires. With so many choices of types of pizza, deciding on just one may seem a difficult decision to make. But really, it is not very difficult. The cheapest offer usually wins. This is where coupons become a valuable way to save money, considering a college student's budget.

Ordering pizza can go too far, though. Pizza can become a nightly habit. When the man at the pizza place is so familiar with a student's voice and first name that a mere "hello" is sufficient information for the regular order to be on its way, it may be time to reconsider the situation. — Crystal Reppart

The Mighty

Have Fallen

This past summer, The Mighty Have Fallen took the stage of Collins Alumni Auditorium with a brilliant cast of thirty-three. The drama was written by Chip Arnold, who is the son of Lipscomb's Drama Director Henry Arnold. It chronicled Saul's mental deterioration, beginning with his anointing and concluding with his death.

The play describes Saul's short reign as King of Israel, during which his pride becomes overbearing and eventually leads to his downfall. Because of Saul's prideful nature, Samuel the prophet of Yaweh turns his back on the king. The drama describes Saul's relationships with his wife, Ahinoam, his children, his army, and his people. The kingdom is finally taken out of Saul's hands and "given to another", his son-in-law David. The play ends with King David mourning the death of Saul and his son, Jonathon, David's lifetime friend and companion. The curtain falls on David, amidst slaughtered corpses, lamenting how "the mighty have fallen."

Chorale/A Cappella

The A Cappella Singers began their year with a retreat the second week of school, getting an early start on the difficult repertoire which the group emphasizes. The busy schedule continued through the fall as they sang for two weddings, University Day, Homecoming, and local churches. This year, the A Cappella Singers took a 7-day tour through the Northeast. In January they sang at the Christian College Choral Festival at Freed-Hardeman College and in April at the Tennessee Collegiate Choral Festival in Cookeville, Tennessee. Other performances included the President's Appreciation Dinner, a special performance of Mozart's Regina Coeli and Schubert's Mass in G.

Another musical group at Lipscomb under the direction of Dr. Larry Griffith is Chorale. Used frequently by the Admissions Office as a recruiting tool for the University, Chorale participated in the Christian College Choral Festival and went on a 7-day tour over Spring Break. ## Concert Band/Jazz Band

Each year, Dr. Steve Rhodes directs two bands at Lipscomb, the Jazz Band and the Concert Band. Both are separate groups which explore several different types of music. The two bands give Lipscomb students the opportunity to express and display their musical abilities.

The concert band gave several concerts this year and provided music for the Homecoming processional. The band played a variety of music this year, from works by great masters like Bach and Handel, to contemporary music. In addition to playing in the concert band, many of the members played in the pep band for the basketball games.

The DLU Jazz Band gave several concerts, both on and off campus. The band performed at various high schools and hopes to schedule a tour in the future. The group had a well-rounded repertoire, in-

Tau Phi

Cowboy Show

"This time of the year" came early this season for Tau Phi. To many people it seemed that the show from last year had just finished when the time came to begin work for this year's show. This year's director, Chris Gunn, said that preparation began early in the school year. As soon as everyone returned for the fall semester, the process began.

A month before the show, auditions were held for any girls who wished to participate. This allowed Tau Phi to have greater variety in the songs and also have backup singers. One week later, practice began.

Slowly, the songs began to come together, and the band joined in on the Sunday before the show. Included in the band were members of "Somewhere Between," (Tim May, Tim King, Kyle Wood, and Robert Morris), Elliot Kinser, Kevin Collier, J.B. Passmore, and Steve Williams. Practices became longer each night until Thursday, when two dress rehearsals were held.

Friday, October 7th, however, made all the work worthwhile. The $3,200 bill for the show was paid with the help of the tickets to the nearly sold-out show. With such a great audience, the performers were ready to do their best. With a minor accident due to the hay stems on the floor, a little extra excitement was added, along with some amusement. (Williams slipped and fell but managed to keep playing his guitar.) Chris said he felt that this was one of the best Cowboy Shows ever because every act was a strong one, and that a great challenge would come next year in trying to top it. — Shana Pounders

DreamMakers

After weeks of rehearsal and months of planning by Director Linda Lewis, the benefit for the DreamMakers organization came together for an unforgettable performance on January 27. Approximately fifty Lipscomb students and alumni made up thirty-four acts ranging from Kung Fu to opera, from spiritual to bluegrass to pop music.

"The main objective of the show was to involve the entire student body, not just get them to come," Lewis said. All the proceeds of the show went directly to the DreamMakers organization. DreamMakers is a non-profit organization whose purpose is to grant last wishes to terminally ill children. A unique quality of the show was that there was no admission, but donations were welcome. A donation of five dollars made the donor eligible to win a door prize.

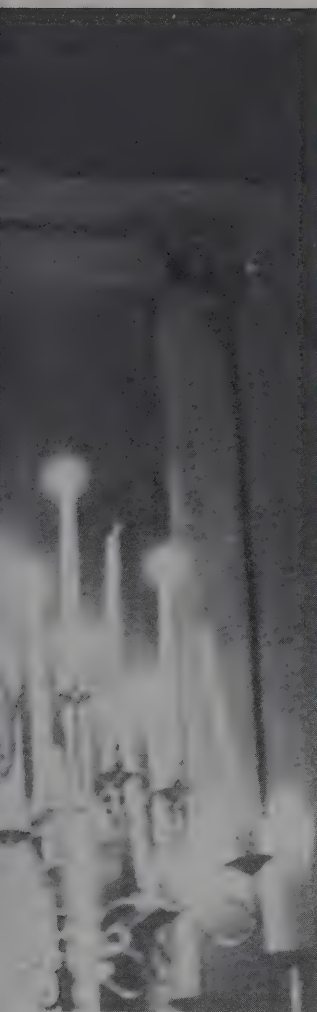

With so many people giving so much, the show was bound for success from the beginning. Donations from local businesses along with publicity from the local media helped to make not only a great show, but also helped to make children's dreams come true. — taken from The Babbler

Semester Switch

A complex change that accompanied the new promotion to the University status was the switch from quarters to semesters. Not only were daily schedules, hours, and credits modified, but the entire scholastic program had to be reorganized. Classes originally broken into three quarters had to be restructured for two semesters. Although changes like this rarely affected new students, returning students were faced with the huge challenge of determining exactly how many semester credit hours they had, which course requirements they had already fulfilled, and what remained to be completed.

One change, which caused grief for both students and faculty, was the confusion in scheduling. In the past, classes were taken daily. Now students had to adapt to Mondays, Wednesdays, and odd Fridays. Some classes are still taken daily and some classes meet every day but Wednesday. Can anyone keep it straight?

Mixed feelings come from students who experienced the switch. One student felt that she was doing a lot more work and getting less credit for it. Rod Sears feels that now students are forced to work and learn responsibility. He said that in the past "we were not made to work as hard and now we see how hard we have to work in the real world." Matt Moss didn't have any problems with the changeover. In fact, he likes the schedule better "because we get out earlier."

How the students and teachers feel about the switch is unimportant now. The new system has been in effect for a year and seems to be working well. To have progress, one must experience change. And progress is the necessary element to a bright and outstanding future. — Shana Pounders

New Flagpole

Earlier this year, you may have noticed that a flag had suddenly appeared in Bison Square. Like most of the student body, you were probably wondering where the flag came from and why it was there. The flag and flagpole are the keystone of the Gamma Xi men's social club efforts to serve David Lipscomb University and its students.

Late last school year, the Gamma Xi officers met to discuss ideas for a service project. "We realized that social clubs were beginning to get a bad rap. We wanted to do something to show that we cared about the school. After all, if it weren't for the school, there would be no Gamma Xi." Those were the words of Larry Sisson, Gamma Xi president. At the meeting, the idea for the flagpole came up. The officers then approached Dean Loyd, who enthusiastically endorsed the idea.

The next step was fundraising. "Over the summer, letters were sent out to club members. The majority of the members responded with contributions," Sisson said. Once the money was raised, the pole was purchased and installed. The new flagpole now supplements the seldom-seen pole that towers over the baseball field.

The flagpole is an example of social clubs' efforts to improve their image. Projects such as these benefit all who are involved. If increased service by the clubs is the beginning of a trend, it is a trend that must continue. — reprinted from The Babbler

All Student Association

The student group that works the hardest for the present and future success of the university is the All Student Association. This association is made up of the entire student body. A Senate is selected by the students to represent their wishes. Four senators are elected from each class and the entire student body chooses four Senators-at-Large. A President and Vice President are then selected by the ASA.

This year the Senate worked very hard to make sure that all campus activities ran smoothly. President John Roberson, aided by Vice President Mell Fletcher, led the Senate through one of its most productive years. Senior senators this year were Joe Bohannon, Lee Camp, Kathryn Dean, and Maury Mitchell. Jodie Bembry, Bonnie Cloyd, Blake Parker, and Stan Lowery represented the junior class. The sophomore class selected senators Trevania Bailey, Scott Broadway, Kathryn Camp, and Beth Roland. Wallace Coleman, Joe Gilbert, Shana Pounders, and Brent Scott were chosen to represent the freshman class. Senators-at-Large were Chris Cashwell, Melissa Hassell, Brett Holliday, and Mark Solomon.

The work of the ASA leaders provided many exciting student activities and numerous proposals which enhanced student life on and off campus. Dedicated senators combined with long hours of service are the building blocks upon which Lipscomb's successful future will be built. — Tiffany Polk

Air Force Jazz Band

It was first heard on the streets of New Orleans as an expression of the human soul. It later became America's true form of music. Jazz soon became a household word and the basis for today's popular forms of music.

We at Lipscomb were given a taste of this musical art form when The Band of the United States Air Force Reserve Jazz Ensemble performed a concert in Willard Collins Alumni Auditorium.

The sounds of the Big Band era, progressive jazz, and modern arrangements of oldies filled the auditorium. Starting off with a modern composition, the band kept the audience riveted with their selection of songs, including vocal selections performed with true jazz style.

All in all, it was a night most won't soon forget.

Year: 1988

Clockwise, from top: The summer of 1988 was hit with the worst drought in many years. Throughout the midwest, farmers watched helplessly as their crops went dry.

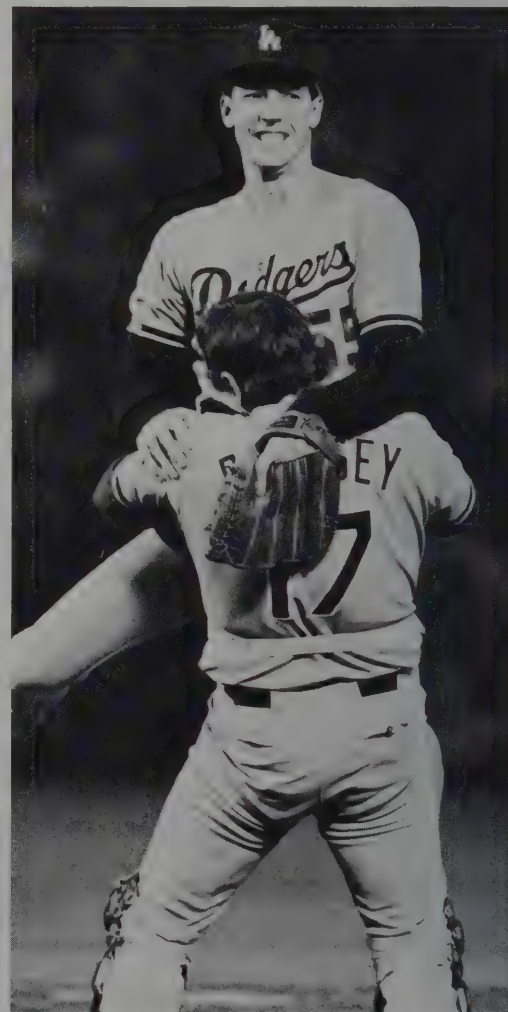

It was one of the big marriages of the year. Heavyweight boxer Mike Tyson married actress Robin Givens. But the stormy marriage of the 22 year-old rich boxer and the 23 year-old beautiful actress lasted less than a year. She filed for divorce. But after being accused of marrying "Iron Mike" for his money, Givens said she wouldn't take a dime.

President Ronald Reagan and Soviet leader Mikhail S. Gorbachev worked for several years to bring the two countries together. After a treaty was signed to eliminate certain nuclear weapons, 1988 was the year the efforts of these two leaders went into effect.

The World Series belonged to the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Dodgers captured their sixth World Series title in October with a 5-2 victory over the Oakland A's in the fifth game of the series.

The 1988 Summer Olympics in Seoul, South Korea opened with a dramatic and dazzling ceremony. A colorful, three-hour spectacle mixing ancient Korean rituals with space-age technology kicked off 16 days of athletic competition.

Hurricane Gilbert rose out of the Caribbean like a giant wind storm in late September. By the time it lost its hurricane status over northeastern Mexico, it had killed more than 300 people, left hundreds of thousands homeless and caused billions of dollars in damage to the Caribbean, Central America, Mexico, and the United States.

It became an international effort of good will. Russian and American rescuers cut through the ice in Alaska to save two California gray whales. The whales were trapped in the ice for more than three weeks. News media from around the world converged on the tiny village of Barrow, Alaska, to cover the successful rescue.

Willard Collins retires after years of service

In the words of Vice President McKelvey, "He's been here forever!" But on December 31, 1988, the grandfatherly former president Willard Collins retired and accepted the title of president emeritus. He began his career at Lipscomb as a teacher, became president in 1977, and then became chancellor in 1986. An impressive and endless trail of credits and contributions follow his presidency. He is most famous for his excellent student relations. He raised faculty morale, he is a powerful speaker, he reeled in endowments, and he selected excellent Board members.

Renowned as "The Student's President," Collins knew every student on campus, their name, hobbies, major, hometown, and who they should marry. He was known, affectionately, as an incurable matchmaker.

As president, Willard Collins worked hard for his faculty. Teachers received an almost 125% pay increase during his term. "He brought a team approach to administration," says McKelvey. "He was always open to questions; you were never afraid to ask him a question," says Vice President Ed-die Thompson, who has worked closely with Collins since 1973.

Willard Collins, as president and as chancellor, also worked hard at fund raising. He sold a piece of real estate, the Burton property, resulting in a monetary endowment for Lipscomb. He will continue to participate in fund-raising as a volunteer.

Collins is well known for his powerful gift of speech. His booming voice won many souls for Christ, including that of Vice President Thompson.

Both Thompson and McKelvey remember vividly his unpredictable chapel announcements. For example, one regarded the fact that he was wearing one black shoe and one brown shoe. In another, he announced that he and Ruth Gleaves, the dean of women, had decided to "stop parking on campus."

Willard Collins will always be warmly remembered here at Lipscomb. As Vice President McKelvey commented, "Those who have never known him have missed a great deal." — reprinted from The Babblor

Bison Basketball

The 1988-89 Bison Basketball team:

Row 2: John Wild, Jason Shelton, Scott Watson, Philip Hutcheson, Paul Sharp, Rob Browne, Darren Henrie, Brian Ayers, Shannon Terry.

"We tried to develop into the best basketball team we could," stated Head Coach Don Meyer. And that is exactly what the DLU Bisons did. The Bisons set a new team record for the longest winning streak and carried their winning traditon into the TCAC playoffs. "We tried to chal-lenge ourselves. We needed hard judgement on ourselves to beat the best," Meyer contin-ued.

Coach Meyer and his staff worked on the team attitude concept. Jason Shelton added, "Team Attitude works because you don't want to let your teammates down." Al Cooper expressed that "there is more personal satisfaction in team success. A Bison would trade in personal awards any day if it would help the team do better."

While the DLU fans have memories of great plays and brilliant victories, the basket-ball team has other memories. Wade Tomlinson explained, "The most enjoyable part of this season was getting to know 'the guys', the players you worked with, cut up with, and lived with." Even though Philip Hutcheson set the school record for career points, his best memories are "the fun with the team, not the great plays."

The DLU Bison basketball team had a season to be proud of, but the excellence does not stop there. The future holds much potential for these super-b athletes and their dedicat-ed coaching staff. — Tiffany Polk

The Lady Bison basketball team continued their tradition of hard work and good strong playing throughout the 1988-89 season. Head Coach Frank Bennett said, "This year's team is one of the closest-knit groups we have had in recent years. The girls have exhibited the best team effort as well."

Coach Bennett places emphasis on team work, not individual play. "We emphasize a team attitude and becoming the best you can be," he stated. To stress this attitude to the girls, he practiced "group punishment." When one player made a mistake in practice, the whole team had to run laps or do push-ups. This strengthened the team's unity and performance.

Bennett, who finished his ninth year of coaching the Lady Bisons, was assisted this year by April Kolbe, who joined the staff in 1983. Kolbe worked with the girls on the court and many times during practice, while Bennett critiqued from the sidelines. Together, they brought out the best athletic ability in each of the girls.

1988-89 co-captains of the DLU Lady Bisons were Kim May and Kim Puckett. Cheryl Smith held the highest point-average for the team, followed by Kim Puckett. Missy Donaldson, Nancy Russell, and Puckett excited fans with their three-point shot expertise, while Smith, Russell, and freshman Nina Hausmann took care of the inside game. Deborah Spencer, another freshman, helped with outside shooting.

The Lady Bisons ended the year with an exciting season. What is more important, though, is that their on-court success contributes to the dazzling future of David Lipscomb University. — Tiffany Polk

"The biggest asset of our squad was the closeness we had among ourselves," said Sonya Zorn, captain of the David Lipscomb University Cheerleaders. "I think it was unique that so many of us were so close. I believe that's what made us all love cheerleading so much. Coach Meyer stressed 'TEAM ATTITUDE' with the boys and I think that his philosophy rubbed off on us. We tried to have that team attitude and work together," Zorn continued.

The squad made up its own cheers and routines which did not include stunts or pyramids, since the NAIA no longer allows them. "It was a big challenge to try to make up cheers that are still entertaining without building (pyramids) at all," Zorn explained.

An important benefit of the squad's closeness is the support system the girls provide for each other. "All of us are good friends and that helps a lot," Zorn pointed out. "There were times when one of us was down or had something on our minds. Once we got together, the bond that we had helped us lean on each other."

The crowd played an important factor in their success. "We concentrated on encouraging the players on each individual play," she explained. "The crowd fires up the team, and we always had good crowd participation."

For the first time, the squad received another form of support. This year the cheerleaders were on athletic scholarships, due largely to the efforts of baseball coach Ken Dugan, who has raised a lot of money for them.

With this support, the support of the crowd, and their own support system among themselves, the cheerleaders have had an exciting season. "To me, and I think I speak for the rest of the girls, cheerleading will be some of our best college memories," concluded Zorn. — Sherri Smith and Daphne Herron

Women's Tennis

Coach Patricia Duty could not describe the ladies tennis team in one word. Her best attempt was that the "Lipscomb Ladies tennis team is a group of women with good character and outstanding tennis skill." Duty also defined the tennis program at Lipscomb as an individual sport that heavily stresses a team concept.

The uniqueness of the team is based on their strong self-discipline and respect toward their fellow teammates and opponents. This excellent performance is displayed in action as well as in attitude. The ladies team ended the season with a 14-10 overall record in the district and a 10-8 conference record.

Coach Duty expressed that tennis is a hard sport that requires sportmanship for success. She believes that this year's team possessed those qualities. Duty feels that they represent the ideals of David Lipscomb University proudly.

Men's Tennis

"I'll be very disappointed if we are not first or second in the conference in district play," said men's tennis coach Lynn Griffith about his expectations for the 1988-89 season. Ken Miller echoed Coach Griffith's sentiments, "Our team has improved from last year, whereas other teams in our district have remained the same. I believe we will do well in the conference."

One of the reasons for the team's anticipated success is its depth. "Our team is well-rounded as far as playing ability is concerned," said Miller. Coach Griffith added, "Tennis is an individual sport, but yet we try to develop a team concept as much as possible. All eight players are important."

Although winning is important, Griffith has a more important goal for his players. "I'm looking for a person who's academically inclined, as well as athletically inclined," he said. This goal is evidenced by the fact that in the eight years that Griffith has been here, ten Tennis Scholar Athletes have come from his teams. "I feel that if our athletes do not graduate, we have missed the boat, and we don't know what college athletics are all about." — Sherri Smith

Cross Country

All in all, the 1988-89 Bison cross country team had a very successful season. The team recaptured their title of District 24 champions for the second year in a row and went on to place 28th in the NAIA national meet. The team did not do as well as they had hoped, but Coach Kent Johnson feels that they have the potential to perform much better next year. Johnson was selected as the District 24 Coach of the Year. Scott Brooks, Chris Hall, and Team Captain Daniel Murphy were selected to run on the All-District Team. Two new freshmen, Steve Butler and Dan Dragomire, joined the team this year. The crack of the bat . . . the whirl of a fast ball . . . the umpire shouting "Safe!" . . . the cheers of the crowd. The Bison baseball team has swung full circle this year. The building of the team began last spring with the recruitment of new players, summer camps, and much more. During this period of time, game plans were polished, pitching was perfected, and muscles were strengthened. All of this activity prepared the team for the fall season.

The fall season was extremely important to the Bison team. It helped the experienced players to get back in the swing of things. It also aided the new players to adjust to Coach Dugan's philosophy. Training during this off-season included scrimmages and a rigorous weight-training schedule. The fall season provided games in which the experienced players and the new players could work together. Without this training, the team would have gone into the spring season unprepared, not knowing what was expected or what needed improvement.

Throughout the year, the numerous hours of training, practice, and much guidance from Coach Dugan and Coach Austelle paid off in the spring season. The Bison baseball team united to accomplish an extremely profitable season. However, after such a schedule, the team does not just fade away until next year. The cycle of putting it all together and building for the future begins again — recruitment of players, summer camps, and much more — until the fall season . . . the crack of the bat . . . the whirl of a fast ball . . . the umpire shouting "Safe!" . . . the cheers of the crowd. — Bill Spencer

Soccer

1988 brought the athletic event of soccer to Lipscomb. Phil Fite, Coach Lynn Griffith, and Dr. Carl McKelvey, Vice President of Campus Affairs, organized 30 interested students into two teams. With coaches Phil Fite and Fred Bidel, the two teams joined eight other teams at the Nashville Men's Soccer Association. Because of limited equipment and lack of a practice field, the inexperienced teams were placed at a disadvantage with the competition. There were no college teams in the league, but many of the members of the soccer association were also members of college teams.

Although the teams were only able to pull out with a few wins, the season proved successful because it initiated soccer teams at Lipscomb and proved as an invaluable learning tool from which later teams will be based.

Next year will probably bring further changes as the program grows. One change that will most likely occur will be the combination of the two teams into one. These humble beginnings will launch an even brighter and more successful future for soccer teams at David Lipscomb University. — Stephanie Lamb and James Massey

Golf

The golf team entered the fall season with high hopes for a good year. With five returning lettermen and two new freshmen, the team played four tournaments in the fall. They eagerly awaited the spring season when they would compete in several major tournaments in Williamsburg, VA, Burlington, NC, and Pensacola, FL. They played against strong competition from several NCAA Division I schools.

The highlight of the fall was when Jeff McRay, a freshman from Chickasha, OK, set a new school record for a two-day tournament. McRay shot 69-69, obtaining a score of six under par.

Buddy Arnold:

The Man, the Myth, the Legend

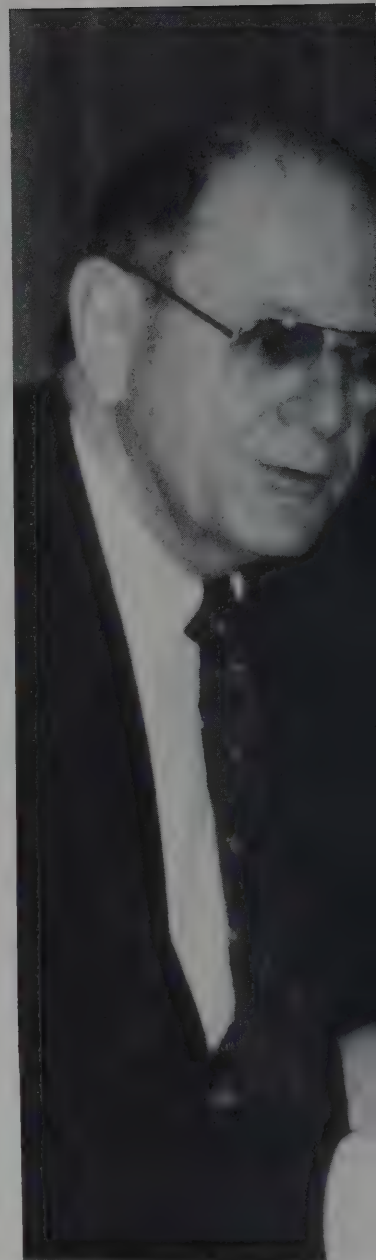

For over forty years, with a sweep of his hand leading thousands in song, Buddy Arnold's chapel singing has been a tradition at Lipscomb. Arnold came to Lipscomb in 1941 to study medicine. He left to be a paratrooper in the South Pacific during World War II. Upon returning to Lipscomb in 1946, Arnold decided to major in music.

"I felt I should choose something I loved to do and would give me satisfaction." By choosing a career in music, Arnold occasionally led chapel singing and was involved in chorus and plays, which led to the meeting of his future wife, Miss Bernie Wyckoff.

While engaged, Arnold and Wyckoff played the leading roles in the 1948 senior play, The Barretts of Wimpole Street. This play is the romantic drama of Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning. "I wanted to direct this play to celebrate its production 40 years ago," said Arnold, and he's done just that. The 1988 Homecoming dramatic production was The Barretts of Wimpole Street, replete with the leading roles performed by Mark Paulk (Browning) and Vali Forrister (Barrett).

Following his marriage to Wyckoff, Arnold became the choral director at Lipscomb. Arnold continued to perform in and direct productions in community theatres. In 1976, Arnold became the director of the theatre program at Lipscomb. "It is magical to see the growth, talent, and self-confidence students achieve when they work together to produce a play," he said. Since becoming drama director, he has directed dozens of musicals, dramas, and comedies.

A member of Actor's Equity Union, he has several commercials currently running. He writes critiques of the performing arts for the Nashville Banner from time to time. Buddy is also an elder at Otter Creek Church of Christ, and is a professor of music and drama at David Lipscomb University. The retirement of Henry O. "Buddy" Arnold ends yet another era — an era of excellence for which Lipscomb is known. Buddy has touched the hearts and lives of thousands of people. He will never be forgotten. Happy Retirement, Buddy!! You deserve it. — Joel Merriwether

In Memoriam

"I've never met anyone who loved life more than Chris Lovell. He had enough dreams and desires to last ten lifetimes, let alone one short lived lifetime. I believe the ambition he maintained will remain a positive influence for me for the rest of my life."

— Dan Norris

"Chris isn't here anymore, but we will never be without him. During my time at Lipscomb, I grew to know and respect Chris. If I can just have a little of Chris's love for life and others, I know I will be better for it. I am going to miss you Chris. You will never be out of my thoughts."

— Phil Condra

"Chris was misunderstood by a lot of people. I think I probably misunderstood him when we first met. This soon passed. He was, without a doubt, an intense person, but it is his humor that stays with me. I remember laughing at a lot of things with Chris. Funny or not, we did laugh a lot. It was easy to make him laugh, and it was easy for him to make people laugh. I think I laughed more with Chris in the three years I knew him than with most people I've known all my life. You can't ask for more from a person. I miss him."

— Damon McClurg

On September 5, 1988, Labor Day, a motorcycle accident claimed the life of a very special member of Lipscomb's student body. On that gray cloudy day, Christopher Lynn Lovell skidded off Cromwell Dr. into a telephone pole. Chris attended John Overton High School, where he graduated in 1985. He came to Lipscomb as a freshman in the fall of 1985. Chris was the type person that was easy to get to know. If you know Chris's family, you know he had a strong family influence which was personified in his dominant character. If you knew Chris for a day or for a lifetime you couldn't help but feel he was one of the finest friends you could have. Chris loved opening his home to others so that he could show them how fortunate he was at home.

"Chris Lovell was one of the first guys I met when I came to Lipscomb. He had me over to his house a few times for dinner with his family. Their hospitality made it a lot easier for me to get adjusted at Lipscomb."

— John Burnette

As a member of Sigma Chi Delta Chris had the opportunity to touch the lives of many people, both student and faculty alike.

"If I didn't pledge Sigma Chi Delta, I wouldn't still be at Lipscomb. If it wasn't for Chris Lovell and a few other guys, I wouldn't have pledged Sigma Chi Delta. Wish you were here."

— Brian Boger

Chris was always quick with a remark or a gesture that would bring a smile to everyone's face. He loved being in the limelight where he was at his best. He had a love for life, and lived it to the fullest. Most of all, Chris loved people. He had many friends and very few enemies. Understanding the "why" behind accidents such as these is hard, even impossible. Sometimes it doesn't seem real.

"Chris was the closest thing to a brother that I will ever have. We grew together and dreamed together. We made promises we would never forget. Through good times and bad times, Chris was there for me, as he was for others too. Chris may be gone physically, but I know I will never forget the brother I loved so much."

— Greg Choate

COLOPHON

(OR FOR THE TECHNICALLY CURIOUS)

The Backlog is an annual publication of David Lipscomb University, conceived and designed wholly by the Backlog Staff, and printed by Jostens Printing and Publishing Division in Clarksville, Tennessee, with a press run of 2,100 copies. The Backlog is available at no charge to students of David Lipscomb University who have attended two of the three ordinary school sessions (quarter or semester) immediately prior to the book's release. Students who have attended one of the three school sessions prior to the release may receive a copy for $10.50. Persons who have not attended any of the three sessions prior to release may receive a copy for $21.00. Faculty and administrators may purchase a copy for $18.00.

The 1989 Backlog contains 240 pages, including 2 multiples (16 pages) of spot color and 2 four color (full color) multiples. The spot color used on the black and white pages is Tempo 527 Royal Purple. The color pages use Process Yellow P-600 as spot color. The cover is Yellow Gold #526 Fabrikoid with #1159 Brick grain. The title and David Lipscomb College sign is Copper #330 embossed to register. The University graffiti is a Purple #354 silk screen. The cover was conceived by Bob Lawler and the Backlog Staff. The endpages are Medium Beige #305 stock with black printing and graffiti. The endpages were conceived by Bob Lawler. All graffiti was hand drawn by Amy Allison. The 9x12 inch pages are printed in black on 80# gloss paper. The main headlines are 36 point Times Roman Bold. Subheadlines are 18 point Helvetica. All other type is Times Roman.

Editor's Note

It's finally the last deadline, and this is the last page. I'd like to take this last bit of space to thank all those who did help with the completion of this book. Those who helped know that I didn't do the best job in keeping track of things, so if I leave anyone out, please forgive me. The staff, and those who helped out anyway, included (in no particular order): Deana Williams, Tiffany Polk, Tracy Wooldridge, James Massey, Sherri Smith, Daphne Herron, Stephanie Lamb, Phillip R. Brackett, Cora Welch, Shana Pounders, Carol Gattis, Treva Bailey, Dietlinde Spears, John Goff, Gary Nichols, Alethea Short, the folks who painted the bison for us, Mary Fender, Tammy Tarner, Dr. McKelvey!!, Bill Spencer, the folks across the hall (The Babblers -- thanx John & Amy!), anyone who loaned, donated, swiped, etc. pictures for us to use, and everyone who said "Hang in there!" Shrona Gaines and Deb McBride helped out on a couple of rough deadlines. And Jim Lasseter just stayed up all night with us to finish. (And we didn't even ask!) THANKS JIM! But there are three people who got the book done despite all the times I goofed up. Nancy Davidson, photo editor, worked even when I told her to go to sleep, so that we'd have the pictures on time. Crystal Reppart, who functioned as layout editor, basically drew the book in addition to the pictures and stories she was responsible for. And Laura Smith, what can I say? She all but took over and kicked me into gear to get the book finished when I didn't know what to do anymore and didn't want to anyway. Without these three, you wouldn't see this book at all.

Our past consists of many memories, both good and bad. Memories that develop our personalities and strengthen our character, good times that made us laugh, bad times that made us cry. Both make up who we are. We each develop our self-concept through activities, such as Freshman Personalities, social clubs, intramural sports, Chorale, or ASA activities, which identify us to others. But events that happen in our past reveal not only who we are, but what we will be. Some may say that looking to the past is wrong. Some say that we should only move forward, and that the past is irrelevant. But the past is what makes our future so bright. Our character is shaped by the things we have done in the past. Our future is formed by the growth that comes from the good times like Tuesday night devotionals, basketball games, Singarama, Homecoming, and the University Celebration. It is also forged by the wisdom and experience gained from helping hurricane victims, teaching inner city children, grieving over the death of a loved one, and

We can reach our fullest potential by learning from our past mistakes and making the necessary changes in our lives. We can use our past triumphs and defeats as tools to create a future so bright that it will "shine before men, that they will see our good works and glorify our Father which is in Heaven." ... and that's all she wrote!

Wow, this is weird.

I'm writing the last page FIRST!

The printing schedules for the yearbook require certain pages to be done at certain times, so this closing section has ended up being done first. This space is most often used by an editor to express feelings upon completing a book and thank all of those who gave so much time and effort to do a good job.

Well, obviously, I can't do much of either. This is just the first deadline, and the realization that we need 64 pages done in 5 days hasn't quite hit yet. Not only that, but I don't know who to thank yet. As the year goes on, the staff will see a lot of changes. People will join or quit, and the jobs will get moved around till we figure out who does what best.

It's a short book; there's not all that much in it. Sorry, but it HAD to be FINISHED by February 6.

As you read this, you've got the summer ahead, but as I write it, I've got this whole book to look forward to. But, "The future's so bright ..."
